

Better Together

Week 1: It's a Group Project

Whether or not you enjoyed group projects in school, there is a component of real life that points toward doing life together. Sometimes it can be messy, but it's worth it. What are some ways our lives are better together?

Discussion Questions

1. Are you a fan of group projects? What was your role in school when you had a group project?
2. How have you found life to be similar to a group project?
3. Read Hebrews 10:19–25. How does what Jesus has done for us affect our relationships with others?
4. Reed mentions the importance of doing things together. Why is it important to have people around you to help you draw near to God? How have others impacted the growing of your faith?
5. Think of a time when challenging things were coming at you. How could having people around you have helped you hold onto hope when these circumstances came?
6. What do you think it means to “spur each other on”? How have others done this for you? How can you do this for others?

Changing Your Mind

Life is coming... the good, the bad, the ups, the downs. And life is better when we have others around us. What are some steps you can take this week to ensure you will have others around you to help you be and do all that God has created you to be and do?

Series Description:

We were not meant to do life alone. When life comes at us, we need people to cheer us on, to lend a hand, or simply to be around. In good times and bad, we find we are better together.
