Discussion Questions

1. Atlanta is notorious for its traffic; what's the worst traffic you've ever been stuck in? What made it difficult?
2. Share a time when you felt "stuck" in your spiritual life (maybe not growing in your relationship with Jesus having a hard time overcoming a struggle, stuck in a routine, etc.).
3. You're not alone! The apostle Paul had times when he felt stuck as well. Read Romans 7:15–24. Can you relate? How so?
4. What do we do when we have the Holy Spirit in us and we still fail and miss the mark?
5. There are three things we learned we are responsible for when we feel stuck—embracing grace, applying effort, and repeating this process. Which of these is hardest for you? Which may need some attention/energy right now?
6. Learning to live this new and resurrected life...
 - Is a continual process.
 - Is about progress, not perfection.
 - While the Holy Spirit is ultimately responsible for the results, we still have a part to play.
7. What can this resurrected life look like during the everyday and the times we feel stuck?
