

STORY CARDS

GET THE GROUP TALKING

15 Popular Questions

We polled our group leaders and have pulled together the top 15 questions they use with Story Cards to get their groups talking. We hope they do the same for you. Enjoy!

KICK OFF CONVERSATION

Use these questions with a pack of Story Cards to get your group talking.

If you want to use Story Cards as a fun icebreaker

- Which card represents one of your favorite vacations?
- Which card represents a major goal you've achieved?
- Which card represents how you like to spend a lazy weekend?
- Which card represents the kind of day or week you've had?
- Which card represents your very first job?

If you want to use Story Cards to go a bit deeper

- Which card represents how work/parenting/your marriage is going?
- Which card represents your current season of life?
- Which card reminds you of a person who helped shape you spiritually?
- Which card reminds you of your childhood?
- Which card captures your current stress level?

If you want to use Story Cards to talk about God

- Which card represents your view of God growing up?
- Which card represents your current relationship with God?
- Which card represents a recent answered/unanswered prayer?
- Which card represents your spiritual journey?
- Which card captures the way you feel about God today/in your current season of life?